

PARTIAL DISCLOSURE

Right to Information Act 2005

Chapter II

Section 10: Severability

- (1) If a request for access to information is rejected on the ground that it is in relation to information which is exempted from disclosure, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, access may be given to that part of the record which does not obtain any information that is exempted from disclosure under this Act and which can reasonably be severed from any part that contains exempted information.
- (2) Where access is granted to a part of the record under sub-section (1), the Central Public Information Officer or State Public Information Officer, as the case may be shall give a notice to the applicant, informing-
  - (a) that only part of the record requested, after severance of the record containing information which is exempt from disclosure, is being provided;
  - (b) the reasons for the decision, including any findings on any material question of fact, referring to the material on which those findings were based;
  - (c) the name and designation of the person giving the decision;
  - (d) the details of the fees calculated by him or her and the amount of fee which the applicant is required to deposit; and
  - (e) his or her rights with respect to review of the decision regarding non-disclosure of part of the information, the amount of fee charged or the form of access provided, including the particulars of the senior officer specified under sub-section (1) of section 19 or the Central Information Commission or the State Information Commission, as the case may be, time limit, process and any other form of access.
