

PURPOSE OF THE REQUEST

Right to Information Act 2005

Section 6: Request for obtaining information

- (2) An applicant making request for information shall not be required to give any reason for requesting information or any other personal details except those that may be necessary for contacting him.