(2) The Commissioner or Superintendent of Police may, either on his own motion or on the application of any person aggrieved by an order made under sub-section (1), either rescind, modify or alter any such order:

Maintenance of order at religious or ceremonial display etc. Commissioner or Superintendent may take special measure to prevent outbreak of epidemic disease at fairs, etc. Power to reserve street or other public place for public purpose and power to authorize erecting of barriers in streets. Power to make regulations prohibiting disposal of the dead except at places set apart.	Provided that before any such application is disposed of, the Commissioner or Superintendent of Police shall afford to the applicant an opportunity of appearing before him either in person or by counsel and showing cause against the order and shall, if he rejects any such application either wholly or in part, record the reasons for such rejection. 66. In order to prevent or suppress any riot of grave disturbance of peace, the Commissioner or Superintendent of Police may temporarily close or take a possession of any building or other place and may exclude all or any persons therefrom, or may allow access thereto such persons only and on such terms as he shall deem expedient and all persons concerned shall be bound to conduct themselves in accordance with such orders as the Commissioner or Superintendent of Police may make and notify in exercise of his powers under this Section. 67. In any case of an actual or intended religious or ceremonial or corporate display or exhibition or organised assemblage in any street or public place, as to which or the conduct of, or participation in, which, it shall appear to the competent authority that a dispute or contention exists, which is likely to lead to grave disturbance of the peace, competent authority may give such orders as to the conduct of the persons concerned towards each other and towards the public as it shall deem necessary and reasonable under the circumstances, regard being had to the apparent legal rights and to any established practice of the parties and of the persons interested and all persons concerned shall obey such orders. 68. (1) Whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner or Superintendent of Police that any place in the area under their respective charges (being a place where on account of a pilgrimage, fair or other such occurrence, large bodies of persons have assembled or are likely to assemble) is visited or likely to be visited with an outbreak of any epidemic disease, he may in consultation with the Corporation or municipality or local authority within the local limits of the jurisdiction whereof such place is situated take such special measures and may by a public notice prescribe such regulations to be observed by residents of the said place and persons present thereat or repairing thereto or returning therefrom as he deems necessary to prevent the outbreak of such disease or the spread thereof. (2) The expenses incurred by the Commissioner or Superintendent of Police in respect of the arrangements for sanitation and the preservation of order at or about the place of assembly referred to in sub-section (1) may be recovered from the Corporation or the municipality concerned. 69. (1) The Commissioner or Superintendent of Police in areas under their respective charges may, by public notice, temporarily reserve for any public purpose any street or other public place and prohibit persons from entering the area so reserved, except on such conditions as may be specified by him. (2) The Commissioner or Superintendent of Police in areas under their respective charges may, whenever in his opinion such action is necessary- a) authorize such police officer as he thinks fit to erect barriers on any street for the purpose of stopping temporarily vehicles driven on such street so as to satisfy himself that the provisions of any law for the time being in force have not been contravened in respect of any such vehicles or by the driver or the person in charge of such vehicle; and

b) make such orders as he deems fit for regulating the use of such barriers.

70. (1) The Commissioner or Superintendent of Police in areas under their respective charges may, from time to time, make regulations prohibiting the disposal of the dead, whether by cremation, burial or otherwise at places other than those set apart for such purpose:

Provided that no such regulations shall be made in respect of any area for which places have not been so set apart:

Provided further that the Commissioner or Superintendent of Police or any officer authorized by him in this behalf may, in his discretion, on an application made to him by any person, grant to such person permission to dispose of the corpse of any deceased person at any place other than a place so set apart, if in his opinion such disposal is not likely to cause obstruction to traffic or disturbance of the public peace or is not objectionable for any other reason.

(2) Any regulations made under sub-section (1) shall specify the places set apart for the disposal of the dead of the different communities or sections of communities.

(3) All such regulations shall be deemed to be rules for the purposes of section 23 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 and shall be subject to the conditions of previous publication and the date to be specified under clause (3) of that section shall not be earlier than two months from the date on which the draft of the proposed regulations is published.

CHAPTER VII

SPECIAL MEASURES FOR MAINTENANCE OF PUBLIC ORDER AND SECURITY OF STATE

Employment of Additional police to keep peace.	71. (1) The Commissioner or Superintendent of Police, as the case may be, may, on the application of any person, depute any additional number of police to keep the peace, to preserve order, to enforce any of the provisions of this Act or of any other law in respect of any particular class or classes of offences or to perform any other duties imposed on the police at any place in the area under his charge. (2) Such additional police shall be employed by the cost (which shall be determined by the Commissioner or Superintendent of Police in accordance with the rules made in this behalf) of the person making the application, but shall be subject to the orders of the police authorities and shall be employed for such period as the Commissioner or Superintendent of Police considers necessary. (3) If the person upon whose application such additional police are employed shall at any time make a written requisition to the Commissioner or Superintendent of Police for the withdrawal of the said police he shall be relieved from the cost thereof at the expiration of such period not exceeding one week from the date of the delivery of such requisition as the Commissioner or Superintendent of Police shall determine. (4) Where there is any dispute as to the amount to be paid by way of cost, the Commissioner or Superintendent of Police, as the case may be, shall, on an application made in that behalf by the aggrieved party, refer the matter to the State Government or any authority nominated by the State Government whose decision thereon shall be final.
Employment of additional police in cases or special danger to public peace.	72. (1) If in the opinion of the State Government any area in the State is in a disturbed or dangerous condition or the conduct of the inhabitants or of any particular section or class of the inhabitants of such area of such area renders it expedient to employ temporarily additional police in the area, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify the area (hereafter in this section referred to as the disturbed area) in which, and the period for which, the additional police shall be employed and thereupon the Commissioner or Superintendent of Police shall depute such number of additional police officers as he considers necessary in the disturbed area: Provided that the period so specified may be extended by the State Government from time to time, if in its opinion it is necessary so to do in the interests of the public. (2) On the issue of a notification under sub-section (1), the State government may require the District Collector or any other authority specified by the State Government, to recover, whether in whole or in part, the cost of such additional police generally from all persons who are inhabitants of the disturbed area or specially from any particular section or class of such persons, and in such proportion as the State Government may direct. (3) It shall be lawful for the State Government to exempt, by order in writing, and for sufficient reasons, any person from liability to bear any portion of the cost of such additional police. Explanation: In this section and in section 74 the expression “Inhabitants”, when used in relation to any disturbed area, includes persons who themselves or by their agents or servants occupy or hold land or other immovable property within such
