Resolution No. NFG-10214-798-Part-IV-V.
Sachivalaya, Gandhinagar.
Dated the 13th February, 2007.

Read: 1. The judgement delivered on 22-02-2006 by the Supreme Court of India in the case of Prakash Singh & others V/S the Union of India & others in the writ petition no. 310 of 1996.

RESOLUTION

Whereas the Supreme Court of India in the writ petition No. 310/1996 by Shri Prakash Singh & others V/S the Union of India & others delivered judgement on 22nd September, 2006, and have inter alia issued some directions to the Union of India and State Governments/Union Territories as regards the importance of the implementation of the police reforms all over the country and,

Whereas the Supreme Court observed in the said judgement that the Central Government and the State Governments should rise to the occasion and enact a new Police Act wholly for securing rights of the citizens under the Constitution for the Rule of Law, treating everyone equal and being impartial to none, which will also help in securing an efficient and better criminal justice delivery system. The Apex Court also found it necessary for the Governments to lay down guidelines to be operative till the new legislations are enacted by the State Legislatures and,

Whereas the State Government upon finding the said directions difficult to implement, filed L.A. No. 11/07 and 12/07 in the petition no. 310/1996, for further charge of a police station shall also have a prescribed minimum tenure of two years.

(b) However, if it is found necessary to remove them prematurely following disciplinary proceedings against them or their conviction in a criminal offence or in a case of corruption or if the incumbent is otherwise incapacitated from discharging his responsibilities, the Government shall transfer the concerned officer.

(c) All the postings of the officers mentioned in (a) and (b) above would be subject to promotion and retirement of the officer as per normal Superannuation Rules and orders.

(d) The decision of the State Government in this regard shall be final.
