

COMPLIANCE WITH SUPREME COURT DIRECTIVES ON POLICE REFORMS

NAGALAND

This note presents the status of compliance by Nagaland with the Supreme Court directives on police reforms delivered in Prakash Singh & Ors versus Union of India & Ors, 2006<sup>1</sup>. Compliance is assessed against key parameters of the directives that are applicable at the state-level (refer to the index enclosed) and is based on government orders issued by the state government. It is limited to compliance on paper and does not address implementation on the ground.

THE SEVEN DIRECTIVES IN A NUTSHELL

Directive One: Constitute a State Security Commission (SSC) to: i. Ensure that the state government does not exercise unwarranted influence or pressure on the police; ii. Lay down broad policy guideline and iii. Evaluate the performance of the state police.

Directive Two: Ensure that the Director General of Police is appointed through merit based transparent process and secure a minimum tenure of two years

Directive Three: Ensure that other police officers on operational duties (including Superintendents of Police in-charge of a district and Station House Officers in-charge of a police station) are also provided a minimum tenure of two years.

Directive Four: Separate the investigation and law and order functions of the police.

Directive Five: Set up a Police Establishment Board (PEB) to decide transfers, postings, promotions and other service related matters of police officers of and below the rank of Deputy Superintendent of Police and make recommendations on postings and transfers above the rank of Deputy Superintendent of Police

Directive Six: Set up a Police Complaints Authority (PCA) at state level to inquire into public complaints against police officers of and above the rank of Deputy Superintendent of Police in cases of serious misconduct, including custodial death, grievous hurt, or rape in police custody and at district levels to inquire into public complaints against the police personnel below the rank of Deputy Superintendent of Police in cases of serious misconduct

Directive Seven: Set up a National Security Commission (NSC) at the union level to prepare a panel for selection and placement of Chiefs of the Central Police Organisations (CPO) with a minimum tenure of two years
